Quarterly returns are due by the last day of the month following the end of each calendar quarter. Your check or money order must be in the form of U.S. currency from a domestic bank.